

PJ Day for the Kids 2017

Wear your pajamas to school Friday, December 8 in support of Connecticut Children's Medical Center!

Friday, December 8, the students and staff of North Branford Intermediate School are invited to wear their PJ's to school in honor of children at Connecticut Children's Medical Center. Each year thousands of children each year spend days, weeks or longer in PJ's while receiving care at the medical center. By joining together with students in schools throughout Connecticut and local businesses you will help us show our support for these children and their families.

Please help raise money to benefit kids at Connecticut Children's Medical Center by making an optional donation of $1 or more. Donations will be collected at school on Friday, December 8. You can also find more information or donate online at give.connecticutchildrens.org/pjday

The event was started in 2011 by a 7-year-old boy who's sister battled cancer at Connecticut Children's. Each year, more schools and business have joined in, and to date, we have raised over $178,000 for Connecticut Children's Medical Center! It has been a lot of fun and a great way to join together to help children in our community.

Appropriate attire for school/ weather. No slippers for safety please.

Checks can be made to Connecticut Children's Medical Center Foundation

All proceeds benefit the Care Center for Cancer and Blood Disorders at Connecticut Children's Medical Center.
